

Commentary Notes from J. Paul Tanner

THE EVENTUAL VICTORY AND ESTABLISHMENT OF MESSIAH'S KINGDOM (7:26-28)

7:26. The Antichrist's reign will only last three and a half years, because God will intervene. The heavenly court (over which the Ancient of Days presides) acts in judgment to remove and destroy--decisively and forever--the authority (or dominion) of Antichrist.

7:27. With Antichrist out of the way and off the scene, the blessed kingdom predicted in both Daniel 2:44 and 7:13-14 will finally be manifested. What is not said in Daniel, but which we know from Revelation 20, is that Satan himself will be imprisoned in the abyss so that he will not be able to deceive the nations for 1000 years. This kingdom will be given to "one like a son of man" (just as Dan 7:13-14 promised), but in another sense it is "delivered to the people of the holy ones of the Most High." That is, the kingdom is first and foremost entrusted to the Lord Jesus Christ. Then those who belong to Him are allowed to enter the kingdom and participate in it. (The NT clarifies that those who are faithful and who endure with Christ will be given the special honor of reigning with Christ [2 Tim 2:12; Rev 2:25-28].)

7:28. The vision seen by Daniel and the angelic interpretation made a profound impact upon him. He was so alarmed that his physical countenance changed, yet he cherished in his heart the insights that he had gained.
